Removal of milk producs from OGL list

298. SHRI NAGENDRA NATH OJHA:

SHRI JALALUDIN ANSARI:

Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the National Dairy Development Board and the National Cooperative Dairy Federation have called upon Government to remove milk products from the list of items imported under Open General Licence;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) Government's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE (SHRI BOLLA BULI RAMAIAH): (a) to (c) Yes Sir. National Dairy Development Board (NDDB) and National Cooperative Dairy Federation of India Ltd. have represented to shift import of skimmed milk power and butter oil from free list to restricted list.

As a part of liberalised trade policy, restrictions on import of consumer goods are being removed in a phased manner. At this stage, it will not be desirable to revert an existing freely importable item to the restricted list of import especially in view of the fact that import of butter oil and Skimmed Milk Powder even after they were placed under OGL have not been significant.

WRITTEN ANSWERS TO UNSTARRED QUESTIONS

route sharing with major Airlines by Air India

2171. SHRI SANJAY DALMIA: Will the Minister of CIVIL AVIATION be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the news item captioned "Air India Plans route sharing with major airlines" appearing in the Times of India dated April 24, 1997;

(b) if so, the details thereof and the reaction of Government thereto; and

(c) tthe gains likely to be accrued to Air India by this alliance agreement in the short-run as well as in the long run?

THE MINISTER OF CIVIL AVIATION (SHRI C. M. IBRAHIM): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) Air India has concluded a Co-operative Services Agreement with Air France, which envisages operation of 6 additional frequencies by Air France in a phased manner by Summer 2000 between India and Paris. Air India will be allowed a block of 40 economy class and 4 Club class seats at an agreed price on these flights. Under the arrangement, Air India will also be able to code-share on Air France's flights to other destinations using Paris as a hub.

Air India has also entered into a Frame Work Agreement with Singapore Airlines which envisages an increase in the capacity entitlement by 6 B-747 units for each side by Summer 2000. This additional entitlement is linked to a code-sharing arrangement between Air India and Singapore Airlines under which Singapore Airlines will make available to Air India a block of seats on their flights to points in the West Coast of USA, Australia, New Zealand and Canada, at an agreed price. This agreement is being placed before the Government for approval.

Air India has also entered into Co-operative Services Arrangements with United Airlines, Gulf Air, Scandinavian Airlines System, Kuwait Airways, Air Mauritius, Malayasian Airlines, and Austrian Airlines. It is also examining the possibility of entering into such an Agreement with Continental Airlines to cater to the India/US market.

(c) The arrangements help Air India to expand its network and market reach without heavy investments. In the short run, it also serves as a bridge mechanism to meet Air India's expansion objectives till it is able to augment its own fleet.
